

CONTEST RULES & ENTRY FORM

1. Hunters must be signed up & entry fees paid by February 3, 2010 NO LATE ENTRIES ACCEPTED!!
2. This is a calling contest. All coyotes shall be harvested by calling & taken with a legal hunting weapon. No trapped animals will be accepted. The use of dogs is prohibited. ATV's may only be used for transportation to a hunting stand location; ATV's may not be used for chase purposes.
3. Hunters must abide by the 2009-2010 TWRA rules & regulations. Remember, night hunting & spotlighting is illegal in Tennessee. All animals must be harvested during the legal daylight hours of FEB 13th.
4. All animals shall be tagged when harvested. A 2"x 2"x 4" wooden block shall be secured in the animals mouth then zip tied shut. Hunters will use a pen & write the time of kill on the block. This is to ensure that the coyote was harvested on Feb. 13th. All coyotes must have kill blocks installed or the team may be disqualified.
5. Hunters must have their harvest checked in by 6:30 pm at the Gibson County Fairgrounds in Trenton, TN. One team member must stay with the harvest until they have been checked in. NO late check in will be allowed.
6. A panel of 3 judges will be present during the check in; their judgment will be honored. Any animal that does not meet the required internal temperature will be thrown out. Disqualified teams will forfeit entry fees.
7. Entry fees are as follows. TCHA / NPHA Club members = $15.00 per hunter, non-members = $20.00 per hunter. Hunters under the age of 16 will not have to pay an entry fee.
8. Hunters are responsible for finding their own hunting ground. Hunters must have landowner's permission before hunting private property. Refer to the TWRA hunting guide for a list of WMA's in this area.
9. Winners will be determined by a points system. Fox = 5 points, / Bobcat = 10 points, / Coyote = 15 points. In the event of a tie, all animals will be weighed & the team with the heaviest total will be determined the winner. Winners will be paid for 1st, 2nd, & 3rd places.
10. The event leaders, club officers / members, hosts, sponsors or judges are not responsible for accidents or losses. Hunt rain or shine!

*Make checks out to the TCHA
